The School for the Blind

Dear Friends and Supporters,

Raj, the principal of the School for the Blind, told us that on the final day before the Christmas break, the School arranged a Christmas party entitled “Christmas Love Feast,” to which students and staff with families were invited to enjoy an especially delicious meal. At that event, each of the students also received new clothing as a Christmas present, something that made them very happy. The party concluded with a cultural program, where the students sang Christmas songs and played music, as well as performed a Christmas play about the birth of Jesus.

The School for the Blind thanks SB Foundation for standing by it since 2010 when it was on the verge of closing, but because of SB Foundation’s faithful support, the School has been able to continue its work securely and well. “For us, the SB Foundation is like an angel of God or a Mother Teresa,” says Raj.

The School for the Blind wishes all the Foundation’s friends a very Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year, a greeting we on the Foundation’s Board heartedly join in,
Arne, Elisabeth, Gloria, Lena, Roger
